Piano

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a series of chords and melodic fragments, including a sequence of eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and features a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A repeat sign is present at the beginning of the second measure.

The second system continues the piece. The upper staff has a more active melodic line with eighth-note runs. The lower staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment. A repeat sign is located at the start of the second measure.

The third system shows the upper staff with a melodic line that includes some rests and tied notes. The lower staff continues with the eighth-note accompaniment. A repeat sign is at the beginning of the second measure.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The upper staff features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns and some accidentals. The lower staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
