

Love, Mercy and Grace

C. Austin Miles

1.'Twas Love that gave at great-est cost a Life, that mine should not be lost. The 2.The love that free-ly all for-gives in full-ness now with - in me lives; Thro'
3.God's love, His mer-cy and his grace com-bine to raise a fal-len race; His Love that died in deep de - spair my debt ful - ly sat - is - fied there.

ev - 'ry tri - al this I see: His grace is suf - fi - cient for me.
hand is read-y ere we call, held out with for - give - ness for all.

It was Love that took my place on the cross of Cal - va -
It was love that took my place

ry; it was grace, re-deem-ing grace that
Cal - va - ry it was grace re-deem-ing grace

ry; it was grace, re-deem-ing grace that

Cal - va - ry it was grace re-deem-ing grace

paid the ran-som full and free. Ov - er sin, with - out, with-

ov - er sin

in, I have the vic - to - ry, thro'

with-out, with-in I have the vic - to - ry, I have the vic - to - ry!

grace, mar-vel-ous grace that lives in me.

thro' grace mar-vel-ous grace