

Love, Mercy and Grace

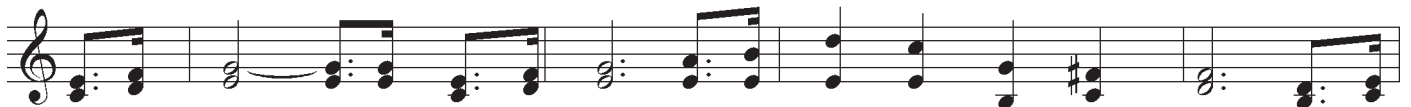

C. Austin Miles

1.'Twas Love that gave at great-est cost a Life, that mine should not be
2.The love that free-ly all for-gives in full-ness now with-in me
3.God's love, His mer-cy and his grace com-bine to raise a fal-len lives; Thro' ev-ry tri-al this I see: His grace is suf-fi-cient for me.

race; His hand is read-y ere we call, held out with-for-give-ness for all.

It was love that took my place on the cross of Cal-va-ry. It was grace, re-deem-ing grace that paid my ran-som full and free. Ov-er sin, with-out, with-in, I have the vic-to-ry. Thro' grace, marv-el-ous grace, that lives in me.
