

From the Twentieth Century-Fox Motion Picture "THE ROSE"

THE ROSE

Words and Music by
 AMANDA McBROOM
 Arranged by DAN COATES

Delicately (♩ = 66)

(L. H.) p

Some say

mp

love it is a riv - er that love it is a raz - or that drowns the ten - der leaves your heart to reed. Some say bleed. Some say love it is a hun - ger, an

F Gsus G C

end - less ach - ing poco rit. need. — I say love it is a a tempo

G F G C

flow - er and you its on - ly seed.

C G

(R. H.) It's the mf heart a - fraid of break - ing that night has been too lone - ly and the nev - er has learns to dance. It's the road has been too long, and you

F G C

G F G

dream a - fraid of wak - ing that nev - er takes. the think that love is on - ly for the luck - y and the

C Em

chance. strong, It's just the re - one mem - ber who won't in be the

Am F G7

tak - en win - ter far who be - can - neath not the seem to give, snows and lies the

C G 1. F G

soul seed a - fraid of the dy - ing sun's love in that the nev - er learns to live. decresc. .... When the spring be - comes the rose. a tempo mp rit. e dim. p

C F G

C