

Arise (Mothers' Day Proclamation 1870)

Julia Ward Howe

The Righteous Mot

A - rise, then wo-men of this day! A - rise, all wo-men who have hearts!

10

Whe-ther your ba - pti - sm be (be) of wa - ter or of tears (or tears): A - rise!

Whe-ther your ba - pti - sm be of wa - ter or tears: A - rise!

18

mf men shall not come to us, reek-ing of car-nage, for ca - ress-es and ap - plause.

Ooh ooh, ooh, ooh,

26

sons shall not be ta-ken from us to un - learn f all that we have taught them of mf cha-ri-ty, mer-cy.

ooh ooh all that we have taught them of cha-ri-ty, mer-cy pa-tience. f We, wo-men of one coun-try, will be too ten-der, ten-der to those of a-no-pa-tience. And we, men of one coun-try, too ten-der to those of a-no-coun-try to al-low our sons to be trained to in-jure theirs. From the bo-som of a de-va-sta-t coun-try to al-low our sons to be trained to in-jure theirs. Ooh - -

34

43

52

Earth a voice goes up with our own: "Dis-arm! Dis-arm!" In the name of wo-man-hood and

- a voice goes up with our own: "Dis-arm! Dis-arm!"

61

- ma-ni-ty, let us so-lemn-ly take coun-sel with each o-ther as to the means where by great hu-man fa-mi-ly can live in peace. the great and ge-neral in-terests of peace. A the great and ge-neral in-terests of peace.

69

79

- rise then, wo-men of this day! A - rise, all wo-men who have hearts!

A - rise then, peo-ple of this day! A - rise, all peo-ple who 87

Whe-ther your ba - pti - sm be (be) of wa - ter or of tears (tears): A - ri hearts! your ba - pti - sm be of wa - ter or tears: A - ri