The first system of the musical score consists of two grand staves, labeled I and II. Staff I contains the primary melodic and harmonic material, starting with a piano (p) dynamic. It features several triplet figures in both the treble and bass clefs, and a quintuplet in the treble clef. A crescendo (cresc.) marking is placed in the middle of the system. Staff II is mostly silent, with only a few notes appearing at the end of the system.

The second system continues the musical piece. Staff I begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and includes a dim. (diminuendo) marking. It features more triplet and quintuplet figures. The system concludes with a pianissimo (pp) dynamic. Staff II has some activity, including a triplet figure in the bass clef towards the end of the system.

The third system of the score shows further dynamic and rhythmic development. Staff I starts with a piano (p) dynamic, followed by a dim. marking, and ends with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. It contains multiple triplet figures. Staff II has significant activity, including a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and several triplet figures throughout the system.
