NARRATOR: Christ had come to be more than a King. He was born into our world to become our Savior.

Upon the cross, Jesus poured out everything He had and was... for you and me. It cost Him everything: His family, His home, even His blood. From sacred wounds, pierced for you and me, flowed streams of crimson, a river of life that transfused generations of believers with His holiness and His righteousness.

(Music starts) In His blood was power: power to forgive, power to cleanse and heal, power to overcome, to conquer and to live a life of constant and complete victory!
